INTRODUCTION

The SIAST Graduate Employment Statistics Report is produced from data collected in the annual SIAST Graduate Employment Survey. This survey collects data on a variety of questions relating to the employment status, evaluation of training, and general demographic characteristics of SIAST's graduates.

Scope

The SIAST Graduate Employment Survey collects data from those graduates who have graduated from a SIAST program of study during the 1999-2000 academic year. Programs surveyed include those offered at the four main SIAST campuses: Kelsey in Saskatoon, Palliser in Moose Jaw, Wascana in Regina and Woodland in Prince Albert and Meadow Lake. Also surveyed were the graduates from SIAST Extension programs offered at numerous locations throughout the province.

The survey provides valuable information on SIAST graduates. This information is used to generate a number of reports of which the SIAST Graduate Employment Statistics Report is the main report produced. A wide range of people, from career counsellors and students, to labour analysts and policy administrators, use these reports.

The training programs surveyed are those programs that are 12 weeks or longer in duration. They include Applied Certificate, Certificate, Advanced Certificate, Diploma and Post Diploma Certificate programs. Most of the graduates completed their program in the late spring of 2000 and were surveyed approximately six months later.

Methodology

SIAST Registrars provided SIAST Planning, Research and Development with a list of graduates including telephone numbers and mailing addresses. Graduates were sent a letter and a survey questionnaire to complete in November/December of 2000. Those graduates who did not respond to the questionnaires were contacted by telephone in February of 2001 by NorSask Consumer Interviewing Services Ltd. of Saskatoon and asked to answer the survey questionnaire. Effort in contacting the graduates was performed to a degree of providing the highest response rate possible.

SIAST Planning, Research and Development personnel input the survey responses that were received through the mail. Data from NorSask Consumer Interviewing Services was collected and input using CATI (computer assisted telephone interview) technology. An electronic format of the telephone results was integrated with the mail-in responses. The data was checked for input accuracy, consistency, and was then analyzed. The SIAST Graduate Employment Statistics Report was compiled from results of the analysis and prepared for hard copy printing and Internet distribution.

Response

All program graduates, as defined in the list provided by the SIAST Registrars, were surveyed and a percentage of this population responded. The results presented in this report are based on only those respondents and relate to their situation at that time. The Graduate Employment Survey did not use random sample methodology.

Format

The SIAST Graduate Employment Statistics Report presents the findings of the Graduate Employment Survey in two main sections: Overview of Results and Program Statistics.

The Overview of Results summarizes the survey results and includes tables and graphs. The areas examined are program assessment, employment status, continuing education, and general graduate demographics. Results are presented for a Core Programs total, Extension Programs total and as a SIAST Total overall. Additional breakdown of results for the Core Programs is provided based on six divisions.

The six divisions are:

- Business and Agriculture
- Community Services
- Industrial Training
- Nursing
- Science and Health
- Technology

A complete listing of the programs within each division can be found, either in the table of contents or at the start of each program division section. Some programs do not have individual program pages because of a low graduate or response count. These programs are listed at the start of each program division section and are also included in the overall analysis.

SIAST Core Programs are defined as any SIAST program offered at one of the four main campuses that is funded by the core budget. SIAST Extension Programs are offered either through a distance education learning format, an industry based training format, or a variety of other delivery formats. SIAST Extension Programs also include cost recovery funded programs.

The Program Statistics section of the report consists of each program on a single page, listed under one of the six divisions. Information provided for each program consists of:

- Program Name, Type and Campus
- National Occupational Classification
- Graduates and Respondents
- Employment Status
- Employment Trends
- Reason Not Looking for Work
- Reason Unemployed
- Location of Training Related Employment
- Enrolled in Any Education or Training
- Training Related Occupation Listing
- Full Time Training Related Monthly Salary
- Training Related Employer Listing
- Quality of Training Received
- Special Notes

Employment information is presented as a percentage of those graduates available to work. These graduates include those working and those looking for work.

Appendices contain a listing of programs that have changed names or credentials, a copy of the survey questionnaire, a question by question response count, a contact list for further information, and a feedback questionnaire.

Availability

This report is available in two media formats. A paper version is printed and a limited number distributed. An electronic version of the complete report can be found on the SIAST Planning, Research and Development web page at: http://www.siast.sk.ca/departments/prd/gradempl/ges1.html . This version of the report is in Adobe Acrobat pdf format and will require the Adobe Acrobat Reader software (available free for download from the web page).

APPENDIX B: 2000 GRADUATE EMPLOYMENT SURVEY

SIAST
SASKATCHEWAN INSTITUTE OF
APPLIED SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY

2000 Graduate Employment Survey

October 2000

Dear Graduate:

Each year graduates from SIAST programs are contacted and asked to complete a Graduate Employment Survey questionnaire. Data from this survey is used in a number of reports that provide information to people in education, government, the private sector and general public. The data gathered is also used in the planning and development of SIAST programs and provides a way for graduates to tell us at SIAST how well we did.

As a recent graduate of a SIAST program, it would be greatly appreciated if you would take a few minutes to complete this 2000 Graduate Employment Survey questionnaire and return it in the enclosed, postage paid envelope. If you are a graduate from more than one SIAST program, you will receive a separate questionnaire for each program. Complete each questionnaire based on that particular program. Participation in this survey is voluntary and all responses will be kept confidential. Please respond by December 31, 2000.

Your co-operation and assistance is greatly appreciated. Thank you.

Sincerely,

G. Sarkar

Gerlinde Sarkar
Director of Planning, Research and Development
